This past weekend our friend and recent ShockerRacingGirl Bex Russ , contacted us about a special project. She set up a special photoshoot for a handful of ShockerRacingGirls through her company BA Entertainment at Extreme Custom Collision . We also invited one of our favorite photographers, Chuck Mahla , out and he brought along a UGR Lamborghini Superleggera. Along with Bex, they shot a special ShockerRacingGirls feature with Tilted Kilt Calendar girl, Andy Kuoni . The full features are coming soon, but for now check out this teaser video featuring Bex, Andy and Chuck Mahla:
